Major Renovations Underway

The Coen bequest is funding more major renovations at the Shade Community Center. Our goal is to completely renovate both rest-rooms prior to the Alumni Banquet in early May.

The women's rest-room is mostly complete after less than two weeks work. Jerry Foster, Ralph Calvert, Gail Jordan, Norm Shaner, and George Benz have gutted the room, snaked the drains, rerouted the plumbing in and from the boiler room and to the new fixture locations, modified the electrical circuits to add lighting, laid new floor tile, installed new fixtures and stalls, and more.

The layout is much different, with larger stalls and sinks relocated. The lavatories have automatic faucets, and the toilets flush automatically. A baby changing table has been added in the former storage closet, which long ago was the women's shower.

We have found many jobs for each of us. Ralph Calvert, he of artificial knees and COPD fame, spent many hours on scaffold priming water supply lines and painting (second photo from right below).

MY GRAND DAD WAS A 'GEEHAWDIST'

Written and contributed by Tracy Hanning

hanningtracy@gmail.com

My Grand Dad farmed with horses
Back when I was just a young lad
When he would get to the end of a row

He would holler out to ole Nelle and Belle
'Gee' or 'Haw' to get them to turn
To the left or to the right

All day long, he would work that team
Turning the earthen sod
Or mowing the alfalfa hay

When it came to farming
He never once him-hawed
But instead sweat would run from his brow

As he gee hawed, day after day
Over that old ridge farm.

The Shade-Lodi History and Genealogy Association generally meets on the third Tuesday of each month at 6:30 p.m.

Usually meetings are held in the cafeteria of the Shade Community Center so attendees do not have to negotiate the stairs to the history room on the second floor.

Meetings are open to everyone whether interested in history, especially Lodi Township and surrounding area, or just interested in stories of the past.

April 19th — Sonny Ruston is presenting about the Barnhill family.

Valentines Shade Style

Time flies. It is hard to believe 2016 saw the ninth special Valentines Dinner at the Shade Community Center. Chair Jerry Foster, and his committee of Fran Moxley, Teresa Winning, Ralph and Amy Calvert, Gail Jordan, Tammy Foster, George Benz and Norm Shaner, put on a memorable event. Many commented that the decorations, food, and music by Remember Then was the best ever. Fran Moxley and the food crew prepared and served over 300 meals to attendees, servers and the band.

Thanks to all the volunteers who helped make this possible. Fran Moxley thanks all who helped with the big food endeavor in the article to the right. We certainly could not pull off this event without Rhonda Meeks and the Lodi Creative Critters 4H club members and parents.

Others who helped with other aspects of the event, from setup and decorating to putting everything away for next year, included:

Charlotte Benz, Brenda Ruth, Pam Hatfield, Bev Guider, Richard and June Coe, Roberta Henderson, and Wayne Pae.

Please let us know if we missed acknowledging your help with this event.

See you next year for the:

10th celebration of Valentines Shade Style!

— Gail Jordan, for the Valentines Dinner Committee

Thanks to the Food Crew !

How do you begin to thank people who make every event a great success?

The kitchen for the Valentine's dinner/dance ran like a well oiled machine, even with a major equipment failure, we pulled off the best one yet. Thanks to the steak fryers, the gravy maker, the chicken bakers, the assembly line of salad creators..... servers, dish washers, dessert makers, thank you, thank you, THANK YOU ALL!

It all starts with a plan and this year we had a good one. People stepped up and worked their magic, it was amazing, good food, even had some fun. A special thanks to the 4-H parents who also came in and just took over the work after those of us who had been there all day were getting really tired. I really cannot say enough about the volunteers who did everything with a smile and laugh or two.

I have a list of names, but there is one who just made my day so easy, thank you Heather, for coming in at the time my energy was failing and taking over and running a tight ship.... You are appreciated more than you can know.

Kitchen volunteers : Janet and Kenny Bell, Roberta Henderson, Ralph and Ame` Calvert, Phil and Fran Moxley, George Benz, Gail Jordan, Brenda Ruth, Beth Rioch, Pat Davidson, Grace Dorst, Joyce Pae, Heather Grove, Cheryl Rioch, Nikki Foster, Rhonda Meeks, Peggy Rist, Brenda Dorst, Sean Bobo, Matt King, Jennifer Pae. If I left you out, my most sincere apology, please let me know so I can get your name in the next newsletter....

ROUTE 33 YARD SALE

The SCCA will once again sponsor a Community yard sale Saturday June 4th for residents of Lodi Township, Old Route 33 and the surrounding area. This will be the second year the Center is sponsoring this multi-family event which is similar to the one held on County Road 24 each October.

Everyone is welcome to participate by either hosting a yard sale at their residence or renting a space either inside or outside at the Community Center, for a nominal fee, to cover advertising. I will start taking reservations for spaces inside around the first of May. I will also post information on the SCCA Facebook page, the What's Happening in Athens County Facebook page, the Lodi General Store and other places around Athens, etc.

If anyone has questions or would like to help out call 740-662-6844, or stop by as I am at the Center from 10-4 on Tuesdays.

So start getting your stuff together, the yard sale is only about 12 weeks away and it will be here before you know it. Teresa Winning

Another Successful Season

Alexander Youth Wrestling called the Shade Community Center gym home for the ninth year this season, having begun here in 2007-2008.

Weather cancelations meant that only two meets were held in Shade this year, one with Crooksville and one with Vinton County. Still, concessions from the two meets brought nearly five hundred dollars income to the Association.

Thanks to Gail Jordan, Manuel and Rose Grueser, Jerry & Tammy Foster, George and Charlotte Benz, and Norm Shaner for helping with concessions, and thanks to Teresa Winning for making the hot dog sauce.

Come December we'll do it again!

Lost and Found

Still unclaimed: Someone left a pair of eyeglasses at the Holiday Bazaar last December.

Call 740-590-9537 to claim.

Stay Informed !

Join the Shade Community Center on Facebook. Announcements of events and many photos are shared there.

Also, you can access the SCCA webpage at shadecomcenter.wix.com/shadecomcenter

And don't forget that regular monthly meetings of the SCCA are held the second Wednesday of each month, starting at 7:00 p.m. in the cafeteria. More participation means a better community center.

JERSEYVILLE RAFFLE QUILT

This is just the top, before quilting. Hope is that it will be done in time for the Spring Bazaar. We used a log cabin block, and the blocks are set in the Barn Raising pattern.

The quilt measures 110" x 82".

Back As Editor

Like a bad penny (or the Terminator, or Chucky), I'm back. I have agreed to serve as newsletter editor, probably for the remainder of the year. Many of you who have been members for several years will recall that I was editor from 2009-2011 prior to Rhonda Meeks taking the helm for 2012-2015. Thanks to Rhonda for four great years. Thanks also to Heidi Marty for the first newsletter of this year.

Members have been very supportive of the SCCA News these past several years while Rhonda was editor. If people continue supplying ideas, articles, photos, recipes, and ads, then my job will be much easier.

Please contact me with your submissions. The easiest way for many of you will be to email them to me either at scanewsmail@gmail.com or at gail.jordan@live.com.

Thank you. Gail Jordan, Editor

Cottage Colcannon (Irish Potatoes & Cabbage)

6-8 servings

1 ½ lb potatoes	1 ½ cup boiled cabbage
1 ½ cup milk	1 Tbsp butter (may prefer 4-6 Tbsp)
6 scallions	1 Tbsp chopped parsley

Cook and mash potatoes. Add butter and milk and beat until well creamed.

Then add finely chopped scallions or chives and cooked cabbage or kale.

Season to taste with salt, pepper, & nutmeg.

Colcannon is a traditional Irish dish mainly consisting of mashed potatoes with cabbage or kale. There are many regional variations of this dish. Usually the potatoes and cabbage or kale are mixed with milk or cream, butter, salt and pepper, although it can contain other ingredients such as spring onions, leeks, onions and chives.

The recipe above was acquired from O'Hooley's in Athens over twenty years ago. Gail Jordan
